Start your engines - Lahaina Cannery Mall to host West Maui Car Show

Proceeds from third-annual event to support Lahainaluna High School athletics department

Lahaina, Hawaii – Lahaina Cannery Mall will host the third-annual West Maui Car Show on Sunday, April 6, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. More than 100 hotrods, classic vehicles, sports cars and motorcycles from across the Aloha State will be on display at this free event.

Proceeds from food, drink and “prize ticket” sales will go to support the Lahainaluna High School athletic department.

“It’s a unique opportunity to check out some amazing cars and support our island’s youth at the same time,” said Steve Austin, general manager of Compadres Bar & Grill and one of the founders of the event. “The money we’ve raised from previous shows has helped buy a scoreboard for the girls softball field, purchase equipment and cover travel expenses for tournaments. We want to give these student athletes every chance to excel in sports and in life.”

The Oahu-based motorcycle stunt group HI Stunters will perform throughout the day, as will rock band El Dogg. Food and drink will be sold by Lahainaluna High School students and Compadres Bar & Grill.

The show is co-sponsored by Lahaina Cannery Mall, Maui Street Rodders, Compadres Bar & Grill and Hawaii Stunters. For more information, contact Steve Austin at Compadres Bar & Grill (808) 661-7189.
