DID YOU KNOW?

The land where Lahaina Cannery Mall is today was the site of a real working pineapple cannery.

In 1919, Baldwin Packers Ltd. erected a cannery on the site because of its close proximity to shipping outlets and employee population. By 1924, the Baldwin Packers Ltd. Cannery was producing 4,500 cases of canned pineapple per day.

In 1962, Baldwin Packers Ltd. merged with Maui Pineapple Company and Haleakala Pineapple Company. Operations were moved to a plant in Kahului and the Lahaina cannery closed soon after.

In 1987, the Lahaina Cannery Mall was built where the original plant once stood. The shopping center's unique architecture and character pays homage to Maui's agricultural heritage.
