

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE (October 1, 2008)

Halloween Cannery Kid's Night returns as Maui's favorite family haunt

Treats include Maui Gold pineapple-o-lanterns, feats of prestidigitation and more

Lahaina, Maui, Hawaii – Lahaina Cannery Mall provides a fun and safe place for the family to enjoy a night of Halloween magic, trick-or-treating, crafts, face painting and its famous keiki costume contest this October 31.

It all kicks off at 5 p.m. with magic from Brenton Keith & His Bag O' Tricks, followed by illusionist Kenn Serrano. More than a dozen prizes will be awarded via our annual keiki costume contest in three age groups (0-4, 5-8, 9-12), plus scariest costume, cutest costume and most-creative costume.

The competition continues with the first-ever Maui Gold Pineapple Decorating Contest. Forget pumpkins! This year grab a Maui Gold pineapple and dress it up to win big. Prizes will be awarded in three age groups (3-11, 12-17, 18 and up) for scariest, most original and most comical entries. Prizes include Kapalua Resort activities, Maui Gold merchandise and more. Visit www.maupineapple.com for entry forms and full details.

Come in costume. The entire evening of fun is FREE, so bring the whole family.
